

Docket Dubbed Winner in the Zoom App Marketplace Competition

May 11, 2020

Leading Venture Firms Fund Up To $2M; Docket for Zoom Integration Enables Meeting-focused Workspaces

SAN JOSE, Calif., May 11, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Zoom Video Communications, Inc. (NASDAQ: ZM) together with Emergence, Horizons Ventures, Maven Ventures, and Sequoia Capital, all investors in the company, announced that Docket has won first place in their Marketplace App competition which was announced at Zoomtopia in October of 2019.

Docket provides a platform specifically made for client engagement meetings, combining advanced meeting templates, workflows, and integrations with AI-enhanced reporting and feedback, to offer a better meeting process and higher satisfaction in every engagement. The Docket for Zoom integration allows users to create, facilitate, and collaborate on the work that takes place before, during and after meetings. Docket's workspace tools give individuals and teams greater clarity, transparency, and alignment from their meetings. The Zoom App Marketplace Competition, which was open to privately held companies leveraging Zoom's video-first unified communications platform provided entrepreneurs the opportunity to ideate, grow their reach and users, and add value and happiness to Zoom customers through innovative new integrations and functionality.

Docket will receive up to $2M in funding from the leading venture firms that participated in the competition. The company will also receive an advisory session with senior Zoom product experts, priority development support from the Zoom platform team, a DTEN D7 55" all-in-one interactive whiteboard with a 3-year Zoom Rooms license, and 10 Zoom Pro licenses for three years. All finalists also received a Logitech Pro Personal Video Collaboration Kit Sponsored by Logitech.

About the Zoom App Marketplace

The Zoom App Marketplace, which boasts over 400 integrations and more than 800 million API calls a month (as of Q4 FY20), brings together integrations built by Zoom and third-party developers, making it easy for customers and developers to extend Zoom's product portfolio with new functionalities. Apps in Zoom's marketplace are vetted by Zoom for security, privacy, and user experience. The marketplace features apps and bots from top technology companies.

About Sequoia

Sequoia helps daring founders build legendary companies from idea to IPO and beyond. We spur founders to push the boundaries of what's possible. In partnering with Sequoia, companies benefit from 48 years of tribal knowledge from working with founders like Steve Jobs, Larry Ellison, Larry Page, Jan Koum, Brian Chesky, Drew Houston, Adi Tatarko, Julia Hartz and Jack Dorsey. In aggregate, Sequoia-backed companies account for more than 20% of NASDAQ's total value. From the beginning, the vast majority of money we invest has been on behalf of non-profits and schools like the Ford Foundation, Mayo Clinic and MIT, which means founders' accomplishments make a meaningful difference.
